Description

Propolis is traditionally known for its anti-inflammatory and soothing activity.

It is a natural plant derived material collected by bees and used to protect their hive from disease.

Propolis Spray may help soothe oral irritation and reduce the symptoms of mild mouth ulcers.

It helps freshen breath and maintain general health and wellbeing.

Warning: Propolis may cause allergic reactions. Test on skin before use. If irritation or swelling persist of the mouth, throat or skin occurs, discontinue use.
